

<Marine Organism Rearing Log>

9 AM, May 11, 2023

Weather: Sunny

Water temperature: 18.5°C

The gulfweeds naturally get tangled and grow prolificously in the same place. Therefore, there is no need to consider individual differences, unlike flounders or abalones. We chop them into small pieces, and freeze them dry to measure radioactive substances with the extracted water.

