Weather: Cloudy

Water temperature: 18.7°C

<Flounder's diary >

Abalone: I heard that hydrangeas have bloomed at the Sakashita Dam, the source of water used in the power station.

Flounder: Do you think hydrangea flowers will flow into our tank? I am so excited!

Abalone: I don't think so. Our tank is a closed-circulation tank filled with seawater.

There's no way they'll come!

Flounder: I see.... (+Д+)
