

<Marine Life Breeding Journal>

July 5, 2023 9:00 a.m.

Weather: Cloudy

Water temperature: 18.2°C

This was the first real summer since we began our breeding tests. As we have recently mentioned, maintaining water temperature is of great importance, so we have procured a spot cooler and spare parts for the water cooling system to be prepared for problems in the future. We will keep you updated.