

(Memo)

May 20, 2011
Tokyo Electric Power Company

Supplemental information of the joint press conference by the Unification headquarters on May 19, 2011 (TEPCO's medical system)

The followings show supplements to TEPCO's medical system of the joint press conference by the Unification headquarters on May 19, 2011.

1. Current TEPCO's medical system

Workplace	Doctor	Morning and Night	Nurse	Location
Fukushima Daiichi nuclear power station	1 doctor (shift, including radiologist ^(*1))	Day duty, but often stay overnight	Absence	Main Anti-Earthquake Building (initial medical care, health exam)
Fukushima Daiini nuclear power station	1 doctor (dedicated, sometimes shift)	24 hours	Shift of 4 company nurses	Healthcare office
J village ^(*2)	Tokyo Electric Power Hospital (shift) Emergency doctor (shift)	24 hours Day duty	2 persons per shift	Medical center

(*1) The industrial physician of radiologist who contracted with TEPCO's headquarter is sometimes dispatched to the Fukushima Daiichi nuclear power station.

(*2) There are other 1 technologist (shift) of day duty from National Institute of Radiological Sciences and medical officer of the self-defense force (shift) for 24 hours.

2. We improve our medical care system promptly (Fukushima Daiichi nuclear power station in particular) with the help of Health, Labour and Welfare Ministry and other authorities.