

Operation of gas monitoring system inside the primary containment vessel at Fukushima Daiichi Nuclear Power Plant Unit 2

We assume we can decrease radioactive material emission by installing gas treatment facility which remove 99% of radioactive material as a part of gas monitoring system inside the primary containment vessel.

Trial run was implemented successfully on October 28th, and we will start operation soon.

