

Outline of Technical Consultation on “Audit for Engineering, Factory Inspection, and the Construction Process” in Singapore

1. Contract period

From July 2007 to November 2008

2. Target of the audit

The target of the audit is the following electric power equipment that will be installed by SP PowerGrid, Singapore, in accordance with infrastructure construction and development in the Bay area and the city areas in Singapore:

- 400kV transformer
- 66kV Gas Insulated Switchgear
- 230kV XLPE and OF cable
- 22kV XLPE cable

3. Content of the consultation

- (1) Procurement recommendation
- (2) Review of specifications
- (3) Visual inspection of manufacturing process
- (4) Visual audit of installation work
- (5) Report audit results

4. Contract price

Approximately 1 million Singapore Dollars
(Approximately 80 million Japanese Yen)

5. Client

SP PowerGrid

Company outline

Name: SP PowerGrid; Government-affiliated power transmission and distribution company

Place: Singapore, Republic of Singapore

Outline: As the solely approved transmission and distribution company in Singapore, SP PowerGrid takes charges of construction, operation, and maintenance of the transmission and distribution network in Singapore.