

We appreciate your understanding on prior-registration procedure for attending press conferences, shown below.

I. Procedure of Prior-registration

1. Prior-registration

Sending prior-registration requirements by email (by noon the previous day of a press conference) Checking Informing of acceptance/non-acceptance of attendance (in principle, by email)

(Once prior-registration is accepted, registration for further press-conferences are not required, in principle. An entry pass will be issued at a front desk on the first attendance.)

2. Attending Press Conferences

Informing starting time of a press conference (in principle, by email and 2 hours* prior to the press conference) Assembling at main entrance of TEPCO Entry procedure Guiding by TEPCO staff to the venue of the press-conference (Guiding will start 1 hour prior to the press conference) Attending the press-conference Guiding by TEPCO staff to the main entrance

* We appreciate your kind understanding, when starting time may not be informed well in advance or may suddenly be changed.

II. Requirements for Prior-registration

Please send the following information by email in advance.

1. Name (Please report the same name written in your identification document.)/ Furigana
2. (In case you use) Pseudonym/pen name
3. Address (Please report the same address written in your identification document.)
4. Phone number
5. Mobile phone/cellular phone number
6. Email address
7. Media organization (If you belong to no organizations, please report as "freelance")

8. Contact address of your media organization (This is not required for persons who report “freelance” in 7. However, please send more than 2 byline articles which have been published within the last 6 months in the media of “Japan Newspaper Publishers and Editors Association, National Association of Commercial Broadcasters in Japan, Japan Magazine Publishers Association, Japan Specialized Newspapers Association, Japan Local Newspaper Association, or Internet News Association of Japan” to public relations team, ERC, Nuclear and Industrial Safety Agency by fax, 03-5512-8502 or by email in advance.

* The information provided will be properly managed by Fukushima Nuclear Power Plant Emergency Headquarter Security Team.

III. Day of Press-conference

1. Please bring the following documents on the day of press-conferences.
 - (1) Identification document: issued document (with your name, address and head shot photo) by an official organization
 - (2) (In case you have), membership card (or ID card) of Japan Newspaper Publishers and Editors Association, National Association of Commercial Broadcasters in Japan, Japan Magazine Publishers Association or Internet News Association of Japan, or Foreign Press Registration Card.
2. In viewpoint of security, attendees of press-conferences are requested to assemble at TEPCO main entrance and take the necessary procedure.
3. We appreciate your prior understanding on the cases when application for attendance might not be accepted, or all the questions might not be accepted, due to time and space constraints.