

Outline of the “TEPCO Decommissioning Archive Center”

■ Objective

TEPCO will establish a “TEPCO Decommissioning Archive Center” in the “Former Energy Museum” building in Tomioka town, Fukushima prefecture. All visitors are welcome to come and learn about the unfolding of the Fukushima nuclear accident and the current status of the decommissioning work.

■ Outline of “TEPCO Decommissioning Archive Center”

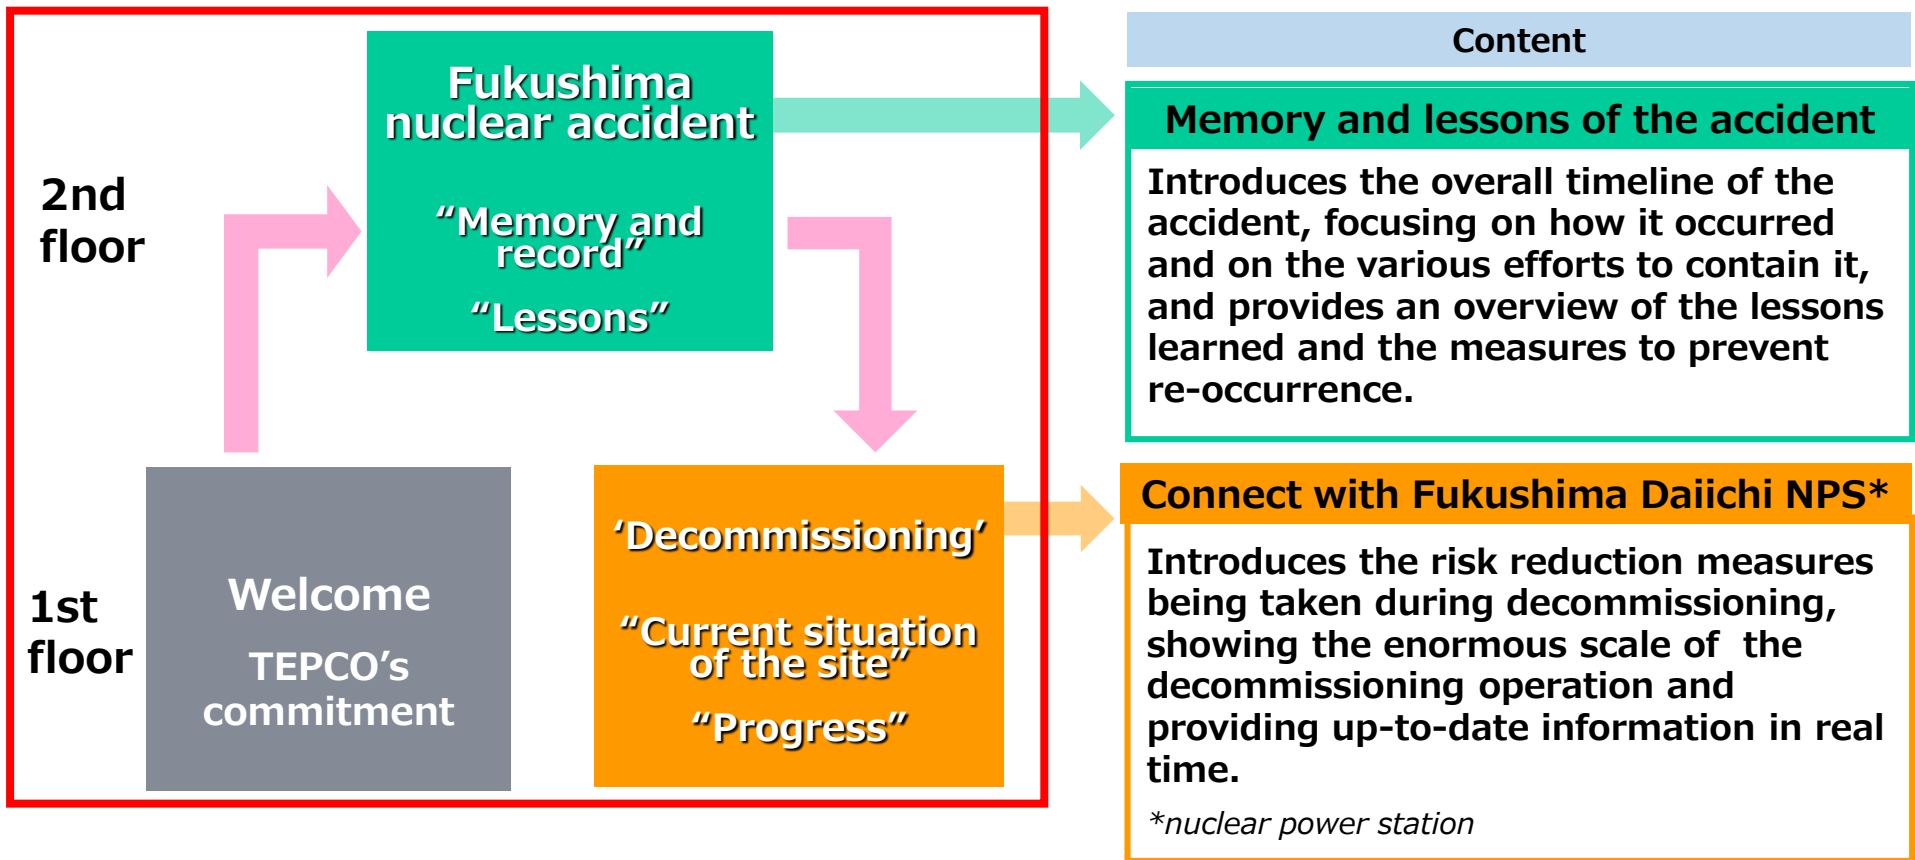

- Name: TEPCO Decommissioning Archive Center
- Location: Chuo 378, Kobama, Tomioka-machi, Futaba-gun, Fukushima (Former Energy Museum)
- Opening: End of November, 2018
- Operated by: Tokyo Electric Power Company Holdings, Inc.
Fukushima Revitalization Headquarters
- Building: 2 floors; approximately 1,900m² of exhibition space, free parking
- Opening Hours: 09:30~16:30 (closed on the 3rd Sunday of every month),
- Admission: Free

TEPCO Decommissioning Archive Center
(Renovated Former Energy Museum)

- All visitors are welcome.
- We will cooperate with other relevant facilities, including the archive that Fukushima prefecture plans to open in Futaba town in 2020, and with local communities.

■ Concept of exhibition

■ Floor image

