

Appendix

1. Shareholder Structure

2. Overview of DEEP C Industrial Zones

- Location: Hai Phong City, Vietnam
- Establishment: 1997
- Development area: 3,400 ha comprising DEEP C HP I – III* and DEEP C QN I – II
*Handled by DCGE VN
- Operating company: Dinh Vu Industrial Zone Joint Stock Company
- Power distribution company: Deep C Green Energy
- DEEP C, which has over 60 clients, including 14 Japanese companies, plans to sell over 900 hectares of land in DEEP C I, II and III to meet demands for new state-of-the-art infrastructure, including a deep-sea port, highways and international airport in Hai Phong.

DEEP C Industrial Zones

3. Overview of Partners

N.V. Rent A Port

- Location: Jordaenskaai 25 Bus 6, 2000 Antwerpen, Belgium
- Establishment: 2006
- Business: Development and operation of ports, logistics and marine infrastructure as well as industrial zones, development of renewable power generation and providing services regarding engineering and consulting.

Infra Asia Investment (Hong Kong) Limited

- Location: 27/F, Worldwide House, 19 Des Voeux RD, Central, Hong Kong
- Establishment: 2013
- Business: Construction and management of port-related infrastructure and industrial zones

About TEPCO Power Grid Inc.

TEPCO Power Grid Inc. is a wholly owned subsidiary of Tokyo Electric Power Company Holdings, Inc., handling electric power transmission and distribution. Leveraging highly reliable equipment and advanced technology, it maintains one of the most stable power supplies in the world, which averaged just outage occurrence of 0.09 times and outage time of six minutes per household in FY2017.

Media Inquiries

Business Management Office

TEPCO Power Grid TEL +81(3)-6373-1111